I represent Bliss Munoz, mother to the above-referenced children in the instant action. Bliss Munoz and Mr. Michael R. Montrief share four children and are engaged in an ongoing custody litigation. There is a domestic violence restraining order against Mr. Montrief. Bliss Munoz has been awarded sole legal custody of the children. One of the reasons the court awarded her legal custody is so that she could ensure the children attend counseling. Prior to her having legal custody, Mr. Montrief sabotaged the children's therapy by failing to consent, writing, and harassing the children's therapist, resulting in the therapist declining to treat the children. His conduct was so inappropriate that the court awarded Ms. Munoz sole legal custody.

It is in the children's best interest to continue therapy and Mr. Montrief has disrupted this process with legal threats, harassment, and bizarre allegations. Therefore, Bliss Munoz objects to release of the Juvenile Case File to the extent that there are records reflecting the name and address of the children's current therapist. Bliss Munoz would consent to release of the file if the name and address of the children's current treating healthcare provider(s) are redacted.
