Bliss,

One week ago Tuesday Athena speculated aloud that falling off the parking structure would kill her. One week ago Thursday Athena told Joi within earshot of me that she wants to kill herself if she can't see us more. This was not her first statement about killing herself.

When I asked Athena why she continues to self mutilate, e.g. pick herself, Athena stated it's because she misses Joi and me.

Last Thursday Athena said you refuse her requests to call me and have hidden the house phone and the girls collectively repeat that they feel "unloved" by you. I've asked Athena several times to not tell Joi in front of you that she wishes Joi is her mother, as has been reported to me by Joi. I've told Athena that this will not inspire you to give her what she wants: more time with her Dad. However, I believe Athena is desperately trying to inspire/ compel some positive response.

I have been ordered by DCSS to appear this coming week regarding your application therewith. Because you refuse to acknowledge the girls repeated requests for equal time share with us and unless otherwise assuaged, I'm necessarily compelled to share the above information with DCSS. I have been told that DCSS staff are mandated reporters. I also shared my frustration regarding Athena's self mutilation and suicide threats with my therapy group and I believe the leader is a mandated reporter as well.

There are other issues/ behaviors with the girls which concern me similarly including Solana recently saying Tim showed her a nude picture of Jan on his phone, but I'm not writing a book instantly.

Have a good weekend.

Michael

Message:

- 1.) Athena told Joi that Athena had white pinworms coming out of her private areas. ACTUAL WORMS. How does this happen? Plus, Dahlia has a sort of posterior rash from unhygienic practices thus Joi gave her a bath tonight.
 - 2.) Dahlia had a meltdown on the school playground today and refused to go to "reading club." If you're not going to make yourself available to go over to the school and calm her down, I need to be able to do it. Otherwise she's probably gonna get kicked out of school.
 - 3.) I don't want Tim taking my picture. My friend Assemblyman Matt Harper invited me to meet John Cox tonight and I took Athena this evening to try and teach her about government. Afterwards, I was making a right hand turn in Laguna to meet Joi down the street from the exchange and Tim drove by taking our picture. I was driving my father's car because my truck blew a head gasket, I don't have money to fix it yet and I feel stalked. Tim and Jan aren't on the DVRO so there's no reason to stalk me and take my picture.
 - 4.) Once again tonight, Jan opened Joi's passenger car door at the exchange while yelling at Athena to get out of the car. Just last Thursday, Tim yelled very loudly multiple times at the children to "Get out of the car." Joi was completely shocked Tim would yell like this at the children in front of a police station.
- If Jan and Tim cannot soften their tone at the exchanges and keep their hands out and away from our vehicles, CPS has suggested that we have an officer at the exchanges. It would be a lot easier for everyone especially the emotional well being of the children if Jan and Tim could be more gentle with the girls. I'm sure the police have better things to do with their time than monitor Jan and Tim's demeanor(s).
- 5.) There are some very serious issues going on with the girls which we apprised CPS of and which I don't feel comfortable sharing with you because the children are afraid of being punished at your house for telling us the truth and we don't want to add to their anxiety. However, I very strongly implore you for everyone's well being that you not allow the children to play violent video games, watch violent/ horror shows, watch age inappropriate movies or go unsupervised.
